

Leucanthemum 'Highland White Dream'

Selling	April to May
Features	Semi-double, white, daisy-like flowers in early Summer through to Autumn.
Benefits	A real show stopper! Easy to grow, tough and no need to stake the plants. Can also be used as a fantastic cut flower.
Story	Shasta Daisies have been bred and improved since 1954. This variety is relatively new to the market, and met all the criteria to be good cut flowers and a real garden winner.
Basic Information
Plant type	Perennial
Flowers	Semi double, daisy like white flowers from early Summer
Height	90cm (3')
Spread	60 – 75cm (2 – 2.5')
Position	Preferably a sunny spot, in any soil type
Hardiness	Hardy