

Viburnum 'Eve Price'

Selling

August onwards

Features

Mid green foliage, pink buds, white flowers in Spring and black berries in Autumn.

Benefits

A good garden plant. A compact form, with a long period of garden interest. Fragranced flowers and very versatile.

Story

This Viburnum originated from Wakehurst Palace (now part of Kew) in 1905, and was named in 1960 after the former owners.

Basic Information

Plant type

Evergreen shrub

Flowers

Pink buds and white flowers in Spring

Height after 4 years

1.2m (4')

Spread after 4 years

1.2m (4')

Position

Sun or semi shade and well drained soil

Hardiness

Hardy to -15°C