

Primula 'Paloma'

Selling

February through to early March

Features

Semi-double rosebud type flowers in a good range of colours.

Benefits

Primula Paloma has more unusual, rose bud type flowers than the other varieties of Primula available. Performs well in pots and containers from mid-Spring.

Story

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Semi-double rosebud type flowers from mid January to March

Height

20cm (8")

Spread

30cm (12")

Position

Sun or shade, in well drained soil

Hardiness

Hardy