

Primula 'Primlet'

Selling

Mid January to early February

Features

Flowers with great gusto from late Winter through Spring, in a mixture of pastel shades.

Benefits

Excellent for creating bright patio pots and tubs in early Spring. It flowers profusely producing a lovely scent.

Story

Introduced by Pan American Seed, one of the worlds leading plant breeders. This plant lives up to its name, as Prim(ula) means first rose open in Spring.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Rose bud type flowers from early Spring

Height

20cm (8")

Spread after 4 years

30cm (12")

Position

Sunny spot in well drained soil

Hardiness

Hardy to - 15 °C