

Allium cernuum

Selling

June

Features

Lantern type buds open into a starburst of pink-purple flowers from late Spring

Benefits

An unusual variety, with long lasting flowers followed by wonderful seed heads. Excellent in small clumps at the front of a border or in patio pots.

Story

Found in abundance in the region of Lake Michigan and commonly known as the Nodding Onion.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Pink-purple flowers from late Spring

Height after 4 years

40cm (16")

Spread after 4 years

30cm (12")

Position

Sun or semi shade, tolerant of dry conditions

Hardiness

Hardy to -15°C