

Salvia 'Hot Lips'

Selling

July to August

Features

Flowers appear red, and then fade to white, giving a two tone contrast, from July onwards.

Benefits

A real show stopper! Aromatic foliage. During the summer the plant can have some all red and some all white flowers at the same time!

Story

This Salvia was found near the Chiapas area of Mexico, and introduced by Richard Turner of Strybing Arboretum, San Francisco.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Red flowers from July onwards

Height after 4 years

75 – 100cm (30-40")

Spread after 4 years

75cm (30")

Position

Sun or partial shade, free draining soil essential

Hardiness

Hardy