

Veronica 'Crater Lake Blue'

Selling	End of May to June
Features	Intense blue spikes above tussocks of deep green foliage, from May onwards.
Benefits	A creeping mat of foliage with masses of flowers throughout the Summer. Wonderful in mixed borders and attractive to Bees and Butterflies.
Story	Commonly known as Hungarian or Austrian Speedwell, and found in most of Europe, this variety has more intense blue flowers.

Basic Information

Plant type	Perennial
Flowers	Blue spikes May to June
Height after 4 years	25cm (10")
Spread after 4 years	30cm (12")
Position	Full sun or partial shade in well drained soil
Hardiness	Fully Hardy