

Hebe 'Pascal'

Selling

March onwards

Features

Deep red foliage with spikes of mauve coloured flowers in Summer.

Benefits

A compact evergreen shrub, which creates impact especially in Winter, due to its deep red foliage. Attractive to both bees and butterflies, so suitable for wildlife gardens.

Story

Hebes originate from New Zealand, and are named after Hebe, the mythical goddess of youth and cup bearer to the Gods of Olympus.

Basic Information

Plant type

Evergreen Shrub

Flowers

Masses of mauve flowers in Summer

Height after 4 years

1.2m (4')

Spread after 4 years

1.2m (4')

Position

Sunny spot in any well drained soil

Hardiness

Hardy to -15 °C