

Aster tongolensis ‘Berggarten’

Selling	May to June
Features	Mats of deep green foliage, with bright blue flowers with a yellow centre, from Summer through to the Autumn.
Benefits	An easy to grow, reliable perennial for the front of a border or rockery, Masses of vibrant flowers. Attracts Bees and Butterflies.
Story	A Michaelmas Daisy, named after the herbal garden at Herrenhauser Garden in Hannover, Germany.

Basic Information

Plant type	Herbaceous Perennial
Flowers	Bright blue flowers with yellow centres from Summer
Height after 4 years	45cm (18")
Spread after 4 years	30cm (12")
Position	Sunny position, with moist soil
Hardiness	Fully hardy