

Viola Collection

Selling

May to June

Features

Five varieties: ‘Columbine’ – rich mauve with cream stripes, ‘Etain’ – cream with lavender margins, ‘Jackanapes’ – brown/gold, ‘Molly Sanderson’ – black with purple veining and ‘Rebecca’ – creamy white frilled mauve.

Benefits

A clump forming perennial which provides a stunning long lasting display of colour and fragrance.

Story

Viola originate from the northern hemisphere and have become a popular garden plant.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Varies

Height after 4 years

12.5cm (5")

Spread after 4 years

30cm (12")

Position

Sun or semi – shade. Moist but well drained soil.

Hardiness

Hardy to - 5°C