

Ajuga genevensis

Selling

May

Features

Hairy, green foliage with small spikes of purple blue flowers in Spring and early Summer.

Benefits

An excellent rockery or ground cover plant. Extremely hardy - it can even be walked on and mowed – if you're brave enough!

Story

Ajuga genevensis originates in the mountains of Europe, and is commonly known as Blue Bugle.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Spikes of blue flowers from Spring

Height after 4 years

30cm (12")

Spread after 4 years

30cm (12")

Position

A dry, sunny spot is ideal

Hardiness

Hardy