

Dianthus 'Passion'

Exclusive to certain garden centres

Selling

May to June

Features

Large, dark red double flowers, rose like in shape, from May to August, with grey-green foliage. Will flower into autumn in favourable conditions.

Benefits

A sweetly scented, free flowering plant. Vigorous growth, excels in a pot or border. Ideal for cut flowers in the home.

Story

Bred by Whetman Pinks, who have been specialists in breeding pinks for over 70 years.

Basic Information

Plant type

Evergreen hardy perennial

Flowers

Dark red, double flowers from late Spring

Height after 4 years

25 - 30cm (10 - 12")

Spread after 4 years

25 - 30cm (10 - 12")

Position

Sunny, well drained spot, tolerates dry conditions

Hardiness

Hardy to -15°C