

Gaillardia ‘Fanfare’

Selling

May

Features

Flowers from May til the first frosts in shades of russet, orange and yellow.

Benefits

A free flowering, dwarf perennial. The flowers grow in size as the plant matures. Wonderful in both a border or patio pot.

Story

Bred by Richard Read, a renowned English Plantsman from West Sussex. A sport from Gaillardia ‘Dazzler’.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Russet, orange and yellow flowers from May

Height after 4 years

30cm (12”)

Spread after 4 years

40cm (16”)

Position

Full sun or partial shade, well drained soil

Hardiness

Hardy