

Primula japonica ‘Valley Red’

Selling

May

Features

Strong red ‘Candelabra’ flowers in May and June, complimented by thick green leaves.

Benefits

Produces a stunning display when planted in clumps of 3 – 5. Excels in damp conditions such as bog gardens, or near to ponds.

Story

Primula japonica are commonly known as Candelabra Primulas and are native to Japan.

Basic Information

Plant type

Perennial

Flowers

Candelabras of red flowers from late Spring

Height after 4 years

50cm (20")

Spread after 4 years

30cm (12")

Position

Tolerant of damp, shady spots

Hardiness

Hardy to -20°C